He does a lot of chalkboard questions where everyone goes up to the board to work on questions he asks. It would be helpful if he went around to help EVERYONE. Instead, he goes around mainly to people he sees are going through the questions fast and focuses on them. The rest of the students who are struggling are LEFT struggling. It makes me feel a bit more hopeless and stupid.

Great TA, super helpful and nice. Vey approachable, understanding and wants to see students succeed.

None

Good TA, however, usually a lot harder than the instructor, which was useful, but hurt my grade more than it was effective.

Very Enthusiastic. Always engaged. Goes beyond whats expected. Always available for help.

Good enough
